ANNUAL JANUARY BANQUET

Thursday January 12th, 2011

Annual Banquets are almost as old as the Historians Guild itself.

Our speaker for 2011 is David Nicandri who everyone will know as the Director of the Washington State Historical Society. Big changes are in store for its museum and for state funded institutions north of the Columbia and south of Canada. During his long tenure he has represented history in the state. Come have dinner with David, schmooze with your friends, tell the board members what the Guild should do and find out who else is now working in your field.

We will also be presenting our annual award to Prof. John Findlay. In John's case, the award is embarrassingly belated since he has done so much for the region's history through his editorship of Pacific Northwest Quarterly and his chairmanship of the history department at the University of Washington. He has also been a good friend of the Guild.

Everything you need to know, the menu, the time, the place, carpooling, how to reserve a place and the deadline, are on the Banquet Flyer at:

If you send in your reservation by mail, you can include your dues for 2012 at the same time. Membership is $25 whether you attend the Banquet or not. The mailing address is:
