ABOUT THE GUILD

History

The PNW Historians Guild was organized in 1980 and held its founding meeting on the University of Washington campus that autumn. In 1983, the first Guild Conference was held in Seattle. The Guild annually awards the Pacific Northwest History Award in recognition of significant achievement in the service of advancing of regional history.

Purpose

Membership in the Guild is open to scholars; teachers; students; and anyone interested in the preservation, development and dissemination of the history of the Pacific Northwest.

Board of Trustees

The Guild is governed by a Board of Trustees consisting of six members serving staggered three year terms. Nominations are accepted each fall for two new members who are elected at the January Business Meeting & Annual Banquet. The new Board then elects a President for a two year term.

Membership Benefits

Joining is easy... and affordable! Annual dues are $25 ($10 for students) per calendar year.

- Invitation to the Annual Banquet with announcement of the Pacific Northwest History Award
- Free Conference on topic of historic interest (past topics have included the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, the Pacific Northwest as a Borderland, History of Food in the Pacific Northwest)
- Special programs featuring new books presented by their authors
- Eight issues of Northwest Historian, the Guild's newsletter
- Email updates on events, opportunities, new books and articles
