

NOVEMBER 2009 REMINDER

MEETING TUESDAY NOVEMBER 10th

Join us at the University Branch Library for the November meeting. We meet at 5:30pm.

The meeting is this coming Tuesday with speaker Paul Dorpat who will be showing a selection of new photos from his files. Most readers will know Paul from his weekly Now and Then photo comparisons and descriptive articles in the Sunday Seattle Times color supplement. He has published thirteen books and his many projects cover a range probably no other member can claim or has even attempted. If you want know more turn to the November Newsletter or visit his blog dorpatsherrardlomont.com.

ANNUAL GUILD BANQUET

This year's banquet continues the tradition of inviting very prominent former public officials. The Board is extremely pleased this year to announce that Governor Daniel Evans has accepted our invitation to speak.

The date is January 7th; the place, the University Club on the UW campus. That's a Thursday and it begins with a social hour at 5:30pm. Registration forms and menu choices will be available soon. Wives, husbands and others are welcome.

CALENDAR

November 10th----Paul Dorpat at University Branch Library, 5:30pm
January 7th-----Governor Daniel Evans at the University Club
December-----The Guild does not plan events in December
February 9th-----Wendi Lindquist at University Branch Library

EVENTS OF NOTE

The Center for the Study of the Pacific Northwest is presenting "The U.S. Navy in the Antebellum West," a talk by Dr. Lorraine McConaghy, Thursday, November 12, 2009
4:00 pm, Petersen Room, Allen Library, at the UW. The event is free and open to the public and there will be a reception to follow.

ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP

It is once again time to renew. Membership for 2010 (as always) is $20 and should be sent to:
PNW Historians Guild
P.O. Box 85457
Seattle WA 98145