

SEPTEMBER 2011 MONTHLY MEETING

Thursday September 8th Meeting

Robert Ketcherside has put together a panel of new historians, people very much outside our mainstream, people who don't necessarily think of themselves as doing history. Certainly there is less emphasis on writing. Robert works with visuals and photography as does Brendan McKeon, who will be part of Thursday's guest panel. Panelist Curt Fischer's work is on Twitter, Facebook and blogs while his MOHAI compatriot and panelist Helen Divjak creates the museum's "MOHAI Minute".

Please Note: This program and the Guild's monthly meetings are the second Thursday of the month. This is a change from previous years. You are welcome to bring non-members and friends as all these meetings are free and open to the public.

September's meeting is on the 8th in the Northeast Branch of Seattle Public Library at 6:30pm---the same place and time as last year. This will hold true throughout the 2011-12 season. Anyone unsure of the location should check the Library's website, spl.org.

Annual Spring Conference

The gears for the 2012 conference have already begun to turn. A planning committee has been organized and a theme chosen. The event will focus on Century 21, 1962's World's Fair in Seattle and you will be hearing more in the coming weeks. Anyone interested in being a presenter should watch for our Call For Papers.
